

ANDREW KRAMER JOINS TAP ADVISORS IN NEW YORK AS A MANAGING DIRECTOR – HEAD OF RESTRUCTURING & CAPITAL ADVISORY

NEW YORK – September 2023 - TAP Advisors ("TAP"), a New York and London-based investment banking boutique, announced that Andrew Kramer has joined the firm's New York office as a Managing Director.

Mr. Kramer will focus on building out the Restructuring and Capital Advisory business, a new product offering for the firm. Prior to joining TAP, Mr. Kramer was a Managing Director at UBS focused on restructuring, capital advisory and liability management. Prior to joining UBS, Mr. Kramer held similar roles at Greenhill, Credit Suisse and Donaldson, Lufkin & Jenrette.

Mr. Kramer has advised a variety of stakeholders in complex restructuring and capital markets transactions, including companies, creditors, and equity constituents. His experience includes engagements across a wide range of industries including energy, power, healthcare, media, technology, gaming & leisure, and general industrial concerns.

Mr. Kramer has an M.B.A from Columbia Business School and a B.A. in Economics from Brown University.

"We are delighted to welcome Andy to the firm. His industry leadership and experience in restructuring will complement our firm's existing strong industry expertise and relationships," said Karim Tabet, Founding Partner at TAP Advisors.

"I am excited to join TAP Advisors and draw from my extensive restructuring experience. I deeply believe in the independent objective advice that the boutique investment banking model delivers and TAP is the ideal platform for me to best serve my clients," said Mr. Kramer.
