

STEPHANE ROUSSEL JOINS TAP'S BOARD OF ADVISORS

NEW YORK – June 2023 – TAP Advisors, (“TAP”), a New York and London-based investment banking boutique, today announced that Stephane Roussel, Chairman of the Vivendi Foundation and Chairman of the Board of Governors of the American Hospital of Paris, has joined the firm’s Board of Advisors as a Senior Advisor. In this role, Mr. Roussel will provide strategic advice and counsel to TAP’s management team and clients.

After graduating in 1985 from the School of Practicing Psychologists in Paris, Stephane began his career in human resources. In 1994 he was named Human Resources Director (“HRD”) at Xerox and became HRD France and International within the Carrefour group after 1997. He became HRD of SFR, then of Vivendi, and was appointed Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of SFR in June 2012. After the sale of SFR to Altice in 2014, Stephane joined the general management of the Vivendi Group first as a Member of the Management Board then as Chief Operating Officer from June 2016 to June 2022. From June 2016 to June 2022, he was also the CEO of Gameloft (a video game development and publishing company within the Vivendi group).

“We are delighted to welcome Stephane to our Board of Advisors. His vast and diverse experience, strong commercial instincts, leadership skills, impeccable reputation and good judgment will serve us and our clients well as we seek to grow our business in Europe,” said Karim F. Tabet, Founding Partners of TAP Advisors.

Mr. Roussel also serves on the Board of the association Entreprises pour la Cité (network of companies invested in social innovation) and of WeTechCare (association founded in 2017 to open digital opportunities to all and improve social support through technology). He previously served as a Board member of Canal+, Banijay, and Telecom Italia.
